ANNOUNCEMENTS

Student Assembly Bulletings will no longer be posted, starting with the next issue. Copies may be obtained at the Converse Info. Desk, the Strike Central Info. Table at Chapin 17, or at the Valentine Info. Tables between East and West.

The Information and Research Handbook, Consider: These are the Days..., has been published and is abailable between East and West during Lunch and Dinner. Although copies are free to all students and faculty, a contribution of $.25 a copy to cover costs would be greatly appreciated.

Summer Political Action (21 Chapin) now has copies of the Hat-field -McGovern petition and lists of approved candidates; come in and pick 'em up. Also, if you can, please help out Duffey in Conn. and Studds in Mass.; volunteer at the office or by calling 2420.

Students interested in researching the local migrant worker situation over the summer, please contact Harry Laracuente (3251) or Franco Garcia (3001). The study will involve work with the men in the fields, so a speaking knowledge of Spanish is important. Come to 22 Chapin today at 2:00 P.M. and talk about it.

Want to bring co-education to Amherst? Come to a short meeting on tactics today at 9:45 A.M. in the Babbott Room.
